

Renestance Regional Reconnaissance

Have you always dreamt of living in France or just recently got the idea? Would you prefer to test the waters before taking the plunge?

With you in mind, we created the Regional Reconnaissance trip - an ensemble of services designed to give you a taste of real life in the South of France. For stays between 2-8 weeks, your Reconnaissance mission will focus on your main objectives, such as :

- Determine where to focus your housing search
- Research real costs and prepare your budget
- Meet and talk to others who've been in your shoes
- See how well you can get around on your own
- Make sure the reality of daily life matches your dream...

While often paired nicely with a C'est Mon Tour, Regional Reconnaissance trips offer much more than a lovely getaway. It's the perfect entrée to your new life. You can pick among the following services to make your trip a success :

Pre-Trip Planning

Accommodations

Arrival assistance and Orientation

Social connections

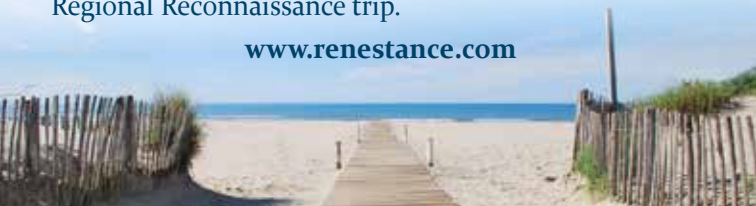

French language learning

Administrative assistance

And opportunities to discover much more!

Contact Renestance today to plan your personalized Regional Reconnaissance trip.
